

MORRIS CENTENARY INTERNATIONAL EVENT

CORNBURY PARK, OXFORDSHIRE • 15-16 JUNE

In the spring of 1913 production of William Morris's first car, the Morris Oxford, began at the former Oxford Military College in Cowley.

The MMOC is celebrating the centenary of this major British motoring manufacturer in style. We are hosting a two-day International Centenary event which will incorporate the MMOC National Rally 2013, but will also involve many other Morris vehicle clubs from the UK and beyond, to create possibly the largest display of historic Morris vehicles ever assembled.

We have a host of attractions lined up to make an exciting and enjoyable weekend for young and old, with Morris vehicles taking pride of place of course!

LOCATION

Cornbury Park is just outside the historic village of Charlbury, Oxfordshire, about 90 minutes from London, Leicester and Birmingham.

CAMPING

The campsite will be open from 1pm Friday to 10.30am Monday. Showers and toilets will be provided but there is no electricity for caravans.

NO DOGS on the rally field as this forms part of Cornbury Park's deer park. Dogs will be allowed on the campsite which is outside the deer park.

How to apply: application forms can be downloaded from www.morriscentenary.org.uk. Come along and help celebrate the Morris Centenary — if your classic is off the road, come in your modern car and join in the fun!
